FINANCIAL.

Madison street had nothing to report yesterday, and business was very dull. Plenty York futures yesterday and day before: of money at 8@10, generally the former, with little inquiry for it. There was a free receipt of exchange at the usual quotations—14 April discount buying, and 14 premium selling on New York; New Orleans buying at M discount. selling at par. The New York Bulletin, of Wednesday, reports: "New York exchange was, quoted to-day as follows at the places named: Savannah, & premium; Charleston weak; 1/6 premium; 1/4 premium. New Ornercial, 14; bank, par. Boston, 1234 cents discount. St. Louis, 50 premium. Chicago—sales par to 25 premium." The New York Post remarks: "With nearly $\frac{1}{2}$ tales; gross, 974 bales; exports to Great Britain, 2207 bales; to the continent, 5957 bales; coastwise, 61 bales; stock, 302,754 money use for less than half of it, and with ton or iron or copper, it is not strange that ply and demand which largely govern every as money; but unless there is to be such ad- American. vance there is every reason to believe that even if this gold should now go into use as money would, in a few months at the farthest have to be withdrawn and exported; and its withdrawal would then cause more distress than if it is permitted to rest, as now, a dead weight on the market to weigh it down the same as any other commedity would weigh down an over-stocked market." In the local ock market some insurance sales were heard of, but nothing of special interest.

COTTON.

The cotton telegrams were again of dis couraging import yesterday; heaviness and dullness were universal. Liverpool was flat and irregular. The ill-feeling between Russia and England, with dissatisfaction in Ausria, prevent the prevalent anxiety in Europe passing away, and until it does the excellent statistical position which cotton now occupies, as is shown by Smith Edwards & Co.'s circular, which we publish this morning, does no good, because the market is more governed by war influences than by supply and demand. In our market there was only a quiet demand, mostly from exporters, and the weak tone already prevailing was unable to resist the drooping tendencies existing, and prices fell ½c on all grades. The New York Bulletin, of Wednesday, says: "The influences, so far as shown, were not very promising, the cable bringing a slow, tame situation at Liverpool, and the home position affording no stimulus. The 'bulls' were com-pelled to manipulate constantly in order to prevent a break under the natural weight of position, and in doing so buy up such odd offering as might be made. Outside specu-lation and new deals are to all appearances suspended for the time being, and without some new stimulus the impression is growing that somebody will have to unload pretty
